

Smiles and Frowns Playhouse Media Release Form

Revised Jan 2023

Smiles and Frowns Playhouse promotes itself at local community events, in print materials, and online through our website (smilesandfrowns.org) and social media. The organization also appreciates the families and children who participate in our productions, and respects their right to privacy.

We therefore ask permission to media associated with your child(ren). Potential uses may be advertising for an upcoming show, fundraising like Giving Tuesday campaigns or grant applications, and general awareness and celebration such as anniversaries.

This release will remain in effect until you provide a written request to Smiles and Frowns Playhouse for the removal of your child(ren)'s images from any online or print publication.
